

LECTURE ON MUSEUMS AND ARCHIVES

3.2.2024

A special lecture organised by St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College and Surendranath College for Women entitled, 'The Study of Museums and Archeology: A Case Study of Moghalmari' was held on 3rd February 2024 for the students of both colleges majoring in History. The esteemed speaker of the day was Mr. Prakash Chandra Maity, Senior Archaeologist, State Archaeological Department, Information & Cultural Affairs Department, Government of West Bengal. The objective of the lecture was to convey to the students the interrelated importance of history, archaeology and museums and their role in preserving the rich cultural heritage of the country. The excavation of Moghalmari, a recently excavated Buddhist site was the special highlight of the lecture. It was followed by an active interactive session with the students expressing interest in the study of archaeology.
