

Lecture on 'Classic Bengali Films and Their Relevance Today' 11.2.2025

The Second Day Lecture of the Two-Day Lecture Series on Skill Enhancement Courses jointly organised by the Departments of History, Surendranath College for Women and St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College was held in the Auditorium of Surendranath College for Women on 11.2.2025. The lecture series concluded with two lectures on 'Classic Bengali Films and Their Relevance Today.' The speakers were Dr. Manas Ghosh, Department of Film Studies and Debarati Gupta, Film maker, Critic and Guest Lecturer. The lectures covered discussions on four Classic Films and their Makers - Satyajit Ray, Ritwik Ghatak, Mrinal Sen and Tapan Sinha. The speakers spoke on the different film languages, styles, philosophy and influences that shaped the making of the films. On the whole they were lectures worth remembering.
