

Name of the Faculty Member: Anamitra Sarkar

Semester -6 2025 (CBCS)
Lesson Plan
Session-Even Semester
January-July

Subjects to be covered as per Syllabus Division

Method of Teaching :

- Classroom teaching both (offline and online)
- Using maps and ICT
- Sharing books and notes
- Discussion with Students through mentoring and doubt-clearing sessions that can be effective to support students in their studies.

Objective:

- Completion of Syllabus
- Help in Preparation of Semester Examinations.
- Semester Six syllabus concludes with the study of national movements within India, the long anti- colonial struggles in Africa, the civil rights movement in America and the second wave feminist movement in Europe heralding a new age in people's movement. It is hoped that after the completion of six semesters, the pedagogical exercise through a combination of class room learning, experiential learning and examinations will help students to acquire a comprehensive knowledge of history which will help to pursue further studies.

TOPICS		TOPICS		TOPICS		REMEDIAL CLASSES
PAPER CC-13	No. of Classes Allotted	PAPER CC-14	No. of Classes Allotted	PAPER DSE-B-2	No. of Classes Allotted	Starts from second week of May
Gandhi & Swaraj	1	Africa-Colonial Struggle	2	Japan	6	5 classes
Gandhi and Rowlatt	1	Africa Apartheid Regime	2
Hindu Mahsabha & RSS	2	Civil Rights Movement	2
Deoband and Singh Sabha	1
Peasant Movements and Nationalism	1
Labour Movement	1
Tebhaga Movement	1
Telangana Movement	1
Second Wave Feminism and miscellaneous	1

Name of the Faculty Member: Mausumi Mukhopadhyay

Semester -6 2025 (CBCS)
Lesson Plan
Session-Even Semester
January-July

Subjects to be covered as per Syllabus Division

Method of Teaching:

- Classroom teaching both (offline and online)
- Using maps and ICT
- Sharing books and notes
- Discussion with Students on Questions and Tutorials

Objective:

- Completion of Syllabus
- Help in Preparation of Semester Examinations.
- The syllabus in this semester ranges from Indian history to international relations and as well the transformation from centralised feudal society to a modern one in Japan. The students get a thorough understanding of the 19th & 20th century political patterns all over the world and the papers in this semester prepare them for development of a research acumen.

TOPICS		TOPICS		TOPICS		REMEDIAL CLASSES
PAPER CC-13	No. of Classes Allotted	PAPER CC-14	No. of Classes Allotted	PAPER DSE-B-2	No. of Classes Allotted	Starts from Third week of May
Nationalism and social groups	1	Manifestation of Cold War (introduction)	1	Japan-Tokugawa Shogunate	3
Dalits	1	Korean Crisis	1	Meiji Restoration	1
Women	1	Indo-China conflict	1	Meiji Political Reorganisation	1
Business groups	1	Vietnam War	1	Meiji Reforms	4
Emergence of a new state (Introduction)	1	Cuban Crisis	1	Meiji constitution	1
Making of the constitution	1	Arab Israel Conflict	3	Japanese imperialism	2
Integration of Princely states	2

Name of the Faculty Member: Santanu Banerjee

Semester -6 2025 (CBCS)
Lesson Plan
Session-Even Semester
January-July

Subjects to be covered as per Syllabus Division

Method of Teaching :

- Classroom teaching both (offline and online)
- Using maps and ICT
- Sharing books and materials
- Discussion with Students on Questions and Tutorials

Objective:

- Completion of Syllabus
- Help in Preparation of Semester Examinations.

TOPICS		TOPICS		TOPICS		REMEDIAL CLASSES
PAPER CC-13	No. of Classes Allotted	PAPER CC-14	No. of Classes Allotted	PAPER DSE-A-3	No. of Classes Allotted	Starts from Third week of May
Debates around Gender Growth of a new intelligentsia- The Press and public opinion	3	De-Stalinization Detente	3	Gandhian Nationalism after 1919 in Bengal	6
Gandhi – Non Co-Operation to Quit india Movement	6	Sino-Soviet Rift	3	Post War Upsurge in Bengal	2
Left Wing Movement	1	Decline of USSR	3
INA	1
Independence and Partition	2
YET TO BE COMPLETED Partition Crisis of Socialist regime in East Europe Riots				Caste Politics

Name of Faculty member: Sutapa Rani Das Gupta

Semester -6 2025 (CBCS)
Lesson Plan
Session-Even Semester
January-July

Subjects to be covered as per Syllabus Division

Method of Teaching:

- Classroom teaching both (offline and online)
- Using maps and ICT
- Sharing books and notes
- Discussion with Students on Questions and Tutorials

Objective:

- Preparation of Semester Examinations.
- Introduce students to contemporary world history and cold war politics.
- Introduce students to regional history specifically history of Modern Bengal.

TOPICS		TOPICS		TOPICS		REMEDIAL CLASSES
PAPER CC-13	No. of Classes Allotted	PAPER CC-14	No. of Classes Allotted	PAPER DSE-A-3	No. of Classes Allotted	Starts from Third week of May
Historiography of Indian Nationalism	2	Origins of Cold War	2	Swadeshi Movement	3
Foundation of INC and earlier political associations	2	Political development	2	Roots of Extremism	1
Moderate Congress	2			Revolutionary movements	2
Roots of Extremism	1			Communal politics 1906-1930	4
Swadeshi Movement	3			Independence and Partition	2
Revolutionary movements	3			Partition Riots	2
Birth and growth of Communalism and partition	4			Refugee problems	1
Partition riots	1
Negotiation of Independence	2					