

St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College
Department of English
First Annual Prof. Kaushik Kishore Sarbadhikari Memorial Lecture
15 February 2025
REPORT

The Department of English, in collaboration with the IQAC of the college, organised a Special Lecture in remembrance of the department's erstwhile teacher, Prof. Kaushik Kishore Sarbadhikari, who left us much before it was his time, in January, 2013. The Department resolved to celebrate his academic acumen and the indelible marks he left on his students and colleagues through his expert teaching and amicable nature by organising annual lectures in his memory every year on or near his birthday, 15th February. The invited speaker for the first lecture of this endeavour, which was scheduled to take place on Saturday, 15th February 2025, was Prof. Siddhartha Biswas, Professor, Department of English, University of Calcutta. He is also the Chairman of the Undergraduate Board of Studies, University of Calcutta. The session was opened by the Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Sudipta Midday, who began the event with a word in prayer. He then proceeded to reminisce about his experience working alongside Prof. Sarbadhikari. Dr. Anasuya Bhar, Dean, Postgraduate Studies, Department of English, St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College, delivered a heartfelt dedicatory speech on her experience of working with Prof. Sarbadhikari and knowing him as an individual. Prof. Sarasij Sengupta, Department of Bengali, also shared his thoughts on Kaushik Da. The event was well-attended by members of the Staff, and students.

The speaker was introduced by Prof. Tayana Chatterjee, Head, Department of English. His chosen topic was “Murder”, They said. The Detective, the Criminal, and the Reader. The lecture had the audience captive for over an hour with the speaker effortlessly mapping the development of detective fiction in English Literature with special emphasis on famous fictional detectives like Sherlock Holmes and Hercule Poirot. Students and teacher alike listened with rapt attention. The session ended with a vote of thanks from the Head of the Department. The entire event was compeered by Prof. Kush Sengupta, Assistant Professor, Department of English.
