ANSWER EITHER QUESTION 1 OR 2

1) Identify and explain the figures of speech in any one of the following extracts:

A) Look, stranger, at the island now,
The leaping light for your delight discovers,
Stand stable here
And silent be,
The through the channels of the ear
May wander like a river
The swaying sound of the sea.

B) The glories of our blood and state
Are shadow, not substantial things;
There is no armour against fate;
Death lays his icy hands on Kings:
Sceptre and Crown
Must Tumble down,
And in the dust be equal made
With the poor crooked scythe and spade.

OR

2) Scan any one of the following extracts, mention the prosodic name and point out the variations, if any:

A) O life unlike to ours!
Who fluctuate idly without term or scope,
Of whom each strives nor knows, for what he strives
And each half lives a hundred different lives:
Who wait like thee but not like thee, in hope.

B) Break! Break! Break!
On thy cold grey stones, O sea!
And I would that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me.
