

Department of Sociology

- St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College

About the Department

- The Department of Sociology at St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College offers students a stimulating academic environment to explore the intricate dynamics of society, culture, institutions, and social change.
- Despite being a single-faculty department, it upholds strong academic mentorship and promotes critical thinking.

Curriculum and Pedagogy

- The curriculum balances classical theories with contemporary issues like gender, caste, development, and globalization.
- Teaching methods:
 - Interactive lectures and seminars
 - Group projects
 - Media analysis
 - Internal Exam

Opportunities and Outcomes

- Students pursue careers in:
 - Social Work & NGOs
 - Public Policy
 - Journalism
 - Research & Academia
 - Civil Services
- Alumni have cleared PG entrances and NET/SET, contributing to academic and applied sociological fields.

Vision and Commitment

- The department fosters socially conscious individuals through values of social justice, equity, and interdisciplinary awareness.
- It encourages intellectual curiosity and lifelong learning.

Unique Features

- • One full-time faculty member ensures direct mentorship.
- • Inclusive dialogue and critical pedagogy.
- • Emphasis on gender sensitivity and civic responsibility.
- • Blend of theoretical clarity and practical exposure.