

Department of Philosophy

REPORT ON GROUP DISCUSSION

The department of Philosophy organized a group discussion on Indian philosophy and propositional knowledge for Semester 1st, 3rd and 5th on 13.02.2026 at 11 a.m. Here discusses means of knowledge (Pramana). This kind of discussion develops critical thinking and problem-solving skills. Group discussion plays a vital role in academic settings. Group discussions help build confidence, address biases, and develop leadership skills. It encourages analyzing ideas, questioning assumptions, and thinking critically. It's also essential for sharing ideas and working together to solve problems.

