Analysis

In the Semester VI (Regular) examination of 2025, a total of 27 students from the Bengali Honours department appeared. Of these, 4 students (14.8%) scored above 60% and cleared the semester, while 11 students (40.7%) cleared it with marks below 60%. Notably, 12 students (44.4%) — nearly half of all appeared candidates — could not clear this semester, which is a point of concern. Overall, the semester clearance rate stands at 55.55%. In addition, only 6 students have cleared all semesters cumulatively so far, a figure that deserves particular attention with regard to the department's overall performance.
