

Report on Round Table Discussion on Gender Issues held on December 2, 2025

The Departments of History and Political Science organized a Round Table Discussion in collaboration with Gender Studies Group and IQAC on Gender Issues on 2nd December 2025 at 12 noon in the Library.

The students spoke on issues of gender violence, discrimination, workplace harassment, masculinity, gender roles, menstrual health, reproductive rights etc and discussed how these can be addressed.

A healthy discussion emerged amongst the 49 students and the interaction led to a fruitful conversation where they exchanged their opinions and perspectives freely with each other

Poster of the event

A student presenting her views

During the Roundtable